
EPLP - 1031 Social Change & Leadership, 1.00 Credit

Level: Lower

This first leadership development class and mentor-guided experience is designed to assist the student in learning about social change theory and their role in leading productive change. This initial stage of leadership development focuses on individual values. The mentoring relationship will provide the resources necessary to aid students in their individual, group, and community experiential growth and development. This learning experience focuses on the first 3 C's of the Social Change Model of Leadership Development: Consciousness of Self, Congruence, and Commitment. Students will explore consciousness of self, congruence in how to become an ethical leader, and commitment to their passions as a leader.

EPLP - 2032 Servant Leadership, 2.00 Credits

Prerequisite(s): EPLP 1031 with D or better

Level: Lower

This second of three Emerging Pioneers Leadership Program development classes is designed to expose students to the next three C's of the Social Change Theory: Collaboration, Common Purpose and Controversy with Civility. The learning takes places in a variety of classroom and team-based settings, focusing on self-identified civic engagement passions that the group shares. Through practical application (i.e., service learning), students gain experience that is directly applicable to employment after college. The course will focus on a greater awareness of community needs and societal issues. Students will work with faculty, student affairs educators, and other students. Civic Engagement Intensive (CEI) sections exist.

EPLP - 5033 Personal Leadership & Citizens, 3.00 Credits

Prerequisite(s): EPLP 1031 with D or better and EPLP 2032 with D or better

Level: Upper

Applied Learning-Creative Work, Upper Level

The third of three Emerging Pioneers Leadership development classes seeks to address the last C of the Social Change Theory - Citizenship and Personal Leadership within the Society/Community. This capstone level experience creates the opportunity for students to engage in the concepts of active citizenship and leading positive change within their own community. Students learn about and apply these concepts by experiencing local government in action and by engaging in a local community challenge within the context of a small group. Civic Engagement Intensive (CEI) sections exist.
