

CERTIFICATE – CODE #2152

Melissa Blake, Program Coordinator
Email address: blakemj@alfredstate.edu

This program, approved by the National Court Reporters Association, will prepare you for a career in various court reporting fields—from official to freelance to realtime and closed captioning for the hearing impaired.

ATTRIBUTES

- Independence
- Great lifestyle
- Prestige
- Flexibility
- Mobility
- Exciting work environments

ADVANTAGES

- Development of high-speed recording skills to 225-plus words per minute through the use of realtime translation machine shorthand and computer aided transcription (CAT).
- In the first year, students learn realtime shorthand theory and develop computer skills that will enhance their overall employability.
- Development of skills in recording and transcribing specialized court reporting matter starts in the summer term and continues through the second year.
- The college offers court reporting courses online, making it possible for students who transfer in credit or attend other colleges to earn their certificate from Alfred State in court and realtime reporting. The online approach still requires two years of course work and does not change any of the standards reflected in graduation requirements for all students. This approach is perfect for working professionals, adult and returning students, and anyone who needs high flexibility in their academic schedule.

OCCUPATIONAL OPPORTUNITIES

- Official court and hearing reporters
- General freelance reporters
- Realtime and closed-captioning reporters
- Scoping
